NEW YEAR GREETINGS

Ringing out the old, ringing in the new. Now is the time to wish health, happiness, success to all our loyal friends and patrons. Thanks for your good will. May this be a great year.

Money Tree For Missionary

On the card accompanying this money tree was a note: "May it soon reach full bloom." Miss Hazel Moon, medical missionary to Nigeria, was given this tree by Belmont Baptist Church, Roanoke, her sponsoring church. Other circles and individuals in Baptist churches in the area also remembered Miss Moon and her work with Africans.

She will return to Nigeria January 25 to begin her 24th year of service to the mission field. She still has the same bicycle she had when she went to the field, but Nigeria has changed, she says, with skyscrapers, television and crowded highways replacing the villages of thatched roof huts. She has traveled 13,000 miles during her eight months here speaking of her work as administrator of Baptist Health Service (McLean Hospital). Nigeria has 250 languages and dialects but Miss Moon spoke "Yoruba", mostly, in her work with the natives. She owns no television but does have a "talking pet", a parrot. Her Mother, Mrs. Margaret Moon, has another one, "Polly" who talks a lot – even imitates "exercises" on the morning television.

First Aid Class

Five Rescue Squad members will offer a class on standard and advanced first aid beginning Tuesday, Jan. 5 at 7:30 p.m. at the Rescue Squad building.

The class is for beginners – those without prior first aid instruction or those who wish to have first aid cards brought up to date or renewed.

There is no charge except $1.00 for an instruction book. All class graduates will receive certificates, Phone 352-7451 for further information.

Instructors will be Ray Noble, Leota Vaughan, Opal Paulette Bill Sperry, and Doug Seamster.

Waddell Heads "March Of Dimes"

January is MARCH OF DIMES month and contributions are being solicited to fight the battle against Birth Defects and Arthritis.

Sam Waddell has consented to serve as campaign chairman again this year and Mrs. Gail Craft will again be campaign treasurer, according to H. W. Comer, Appomattox County Chapter Chairman.

Envelopes will be distributed through the schools and a Mother's March is planned for later in the month.

We will have the usual business and professional canvass and if you are not contacted, and you are willing to help, send your contribution to Mrs. Craft, Farmers National Bank.

We were successful in the fight against polio, with your help, we may also be successful in controlling Birth Defects and Arthritis.

Reminders Sent On TB Seals

"Early in November Christmas Seals from the Central Virginia Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association were mailed to approximately 56,000 homes in the area served by the Association," Mrs. James C. Rea, Jr., Chairman of the Seal Campaign Committee, said today.

Most of us known that when we buy Christmas Seals, we are not just buying pretty decorations for our holiday packages and cards. We know that we are contributing to the support of a community organization which is dedicated to fighting tuberculosis, respiratory diseases, and air pollution. We know exactly how our Christmas Seal money is working for us.

Approximately 17,000 reminders will be mailed on Wednesday, Dec. 30, 1970, to residents of our area who have not replied to our once a year appeal for help to continue our vital health services. Without their support, there is no way to carry on these services. It is possible that these reminders may cross your letter with a contribution. Should this happen, please consider the reminder a "Thank you" note.

WMU Board To Meet

The Appomattox W. M. U. Executive Board will meet Monday morning, January 4 at 10:30 a. m. at Liberty Baptist Church, according to an announcement by the superintendent, Mrs. Vergil Hudson. All officers, Association and ministerial wives are invited.

Two Firms In Year-end Report

Data released this week by the State Division of Industrial Development reveals that two industrial firms are listed with others in manufacturing developments in Virginia during 1970.

The two are Cloverhill Manufacturing Company, Appomattox, modular homes, estimated 60 employees when in full production.

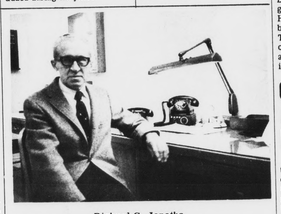
Also, Amelia Dress Company where warehouse space was added during the year.

Make-up Measles Clinic Jan. 5

A make-up clinic for the rubella measles (German measles) vaccine will be held at the Appomattox Health Department on Tuesday, Jan. 5, 1971, from 9 to 11 a.m. This clinic is for children ages 1 – 11 who have not been previously immunized.

PUBLIC HEARING ON ORDINANCE SET FOR JAN. 8

A public hearing will be held Friday morning, January 8 in the clerk's office, Appomattox, during the regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors. The hearing concerns an ordinance requiring a permit for public entertainments held outside existing auditoriums or arenas. (See classified page for complete ordinance.)



Richard G. Janatka

Annouces Retirement

A well liked and respected "member" of the Transco family of Appomattox is retiring tomorrow (January 1) after twenty years of service to the company.

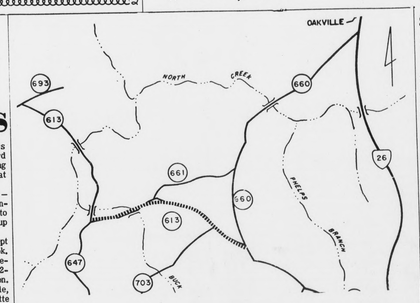
Richard G. Janatka joined Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation on November 27, 1950, during the original construction here.

His plans following retirement are not definite, but he and his wife, the former Margaret Coleman, are considering a trip to Europe in the spring. Appomattox and their residence, historic "Redfields", will continue to be home.

Mr. Janatka plans to seek some type of employment. In his spare time he will paint, an interest of both the Janatkas, and he plans to work a little on the farm, raising cattle.

Transco honored Mr. Janatka on Wednesday evening with a dinner at Maude's Restaurant. Other than Mr. and Mrs. Janatka, guests included employees of Transco Station 170 and their wives. Mr. Janatka was presented a gift from his fellow employees.

Council Approves $99,250 Budget



Public Hearing Set For Road 613

Proposed improvements to Secondary 613 in Appomattox County will be discussed at a location and design public hearing to be held at 10 a.m. January 4 in the Appomattox Courthouse.

The proposed improvements would be on 1.64 miles of Secondary 613 between its intersection with Secondary 660 and Secondary 647 southwest of Oakville. This portion of the roadway is now all-weather surface and it would be paved if the proposals are approved.

The roadway would also be widened from its present widths of 14 and 16 feet to a standard 18-foot width. In addition, the wooden bridge across Buck Creek would be replaced by a double box culvert. There would be slight relocation of the roadway at its intersection with Secondary 661 to eliminate a curve.

Maps, drawings and other pertinent information are available for public inspection and copying in the Department of Highways district office at Lynchburg, located on US Route 501 just south of Lynchburg and in the department's residency office located on Ferguson Street in Appomattox, just east of the Norfolk and Western Railway underpass.

Written statements and other exhibits relative to the proposed project may be presented in place of, or in addition to, oral statements at the hearing. Such written statements and exhibits may be submitted to the Department of Highways within 10 days after the public hearing.

Relocation assistance programs as well as tentative schedules for right-of-way acquisition and construction will be discussed at the public hearing.

$9,280 Increase Over 1970

The end-of-the-year meeting of Appomattox Town Council, Dec. 21, brought approval for a 1971 budget of $99,250.00, an increase of $9,280 over the 1970 budget of $89,743.00.

Complete details of the budget will be published after the first of the year, according to town manager C. S. Booth.

Mayor Henry B. Pack and Council received the budget report from finance committee chairman, Ivey Holland, and council committeemen Robert C. Hubbard and Thomas E. (Sonny) Conner.

The increase in the budget reflects increases in salaries of town workers and increased operational costs.

The budget is divided into three categories: Administrative expenses, Water Dept. Expenses and Sewer and Waste Disposal Expenses.

Administrative expenses totaled $44,125, $5,045 less than the '70 budget of $49,170. The '71 budget was set at $55,550. Receipts for this part of the town budget totaled $61,372, during the past year.

Water Dept. expenses during the past year totaled $34,662, $7,562 more than the '70 budget of $27,100. Receipts for this department during the year totaled $31,071 and the '71 budget allows for expenditures of $31,750.

Sewer Dept. expenses during the past year totaled $11,172, about $2,000 less than the '70 budget of $13,700. Sewer Dept. receipts for the year totaled $14,890 and the '71 budget allows for expenditures of $11,950.

Woman's Club To Meet Mon.

The Appomattox Woman's Club will meet Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Rescue Squad Building. Mrs. Crawford Davidson and Mrs. F. L. Eggleston, as co-chairman of the Health and Welfare Dept. will be in charge of the program. They have invited Rescue Squad officers and members to talk about the work of the Squad in Appomattox County.

Corrections & Addition To Memorial List

An addition has been made to the list of names of servicemen of World War I, World War II, Korean War and Vietnam, who gave their lives and who are to be honored with a memorial to be constructed on the Courthouse grounds, Appomattox.

The name of Alfred Ferguson, World War II, has been added. Calvin Coolidge Tolley, Jr., served in Vietnam, not Korean, as originally printed in the Dec. 17 Times-Virginian. The name of Cloice Turner was spelled incorrectly.

Larry A. Young, American Legion Post 104, as spokesman for the sponsoring organization asks that any other additons or corrections be submitted to him right away.

Contributions to the fund are always welcome. The complete list is as follows:

World War I: James R. Beasley, James Thomas Cyrus, Edward Becom Gunter, Robert F.

Notice For HD Presidents

Notice to all presidents of Appomattox County Home Demonstration Clubs - Your year-end reports are now due. Please send them to Mrs. Vergil Hudson as soon as possible.

Baby "Ends Old Year" In Old Carriage

Charles Van Allen Burke, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Allen Burke of Blackstone, "Ends The Old Year" by napping in a baby carriage that is over one hundred years old at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barger. The carriage was handed down through several generations of Mrs. Barger's family. Charles Van Allen Burke's great-great grandfather and his great grandfather, both named Charles, used the carriage when they were babies – then it was "tossed away" in an attic where it stayed until Mrs. Barger "dug it out" and refinished the entire carriage.

According to Mr. George H. Heywood, Jr., President of Heywood – Wakefield Company, Gardner, Massachusette, the baby carriage was made between 1849 and 1861 by the Heywood Company, which was founded in 1826 by five Heywood brothers. In 1862 the company became the Heywood - Wakefield Company and is still managed by descendants of the five brothers who originally founded the company. In a letter to Mrs. Barger, Mr. Heywood wrote, "you indeed should be proud to own this heirloom which is known today as a museum piece."

Van Allen Burke is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Burke and Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Barger, all of Appomattox.

Holiday Hours

The Appomattox County Library will be open from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. today (Dec. 31) and will be closed Friday, Jan. 1, 1971. Regular hours resume when public schools open on Monday morning.
